AN ELEGANT ART WORK!

THE CHEAPEST ISSUED IN AMERICA!

The only Book of its kind in the Language!

M. BLANC'S
GRAMMAR of PAINTING and ENGRAVING

Translated from the French,

By MRS. KATE N. DOGGETT.

This elegant volume is a large octavo, printed with wide margin, is finely bound, contains the original illustrations, nearly fifty in number, from the famous art works of Bellini, Raphael, Da Vinci, Rembrandt, Lorraine, Poussin, Paul Potter, Holbein, and other eminent artists, and is one of the most valuable contributions ever made to the art publications of this country. Price, $3.

The Albany Argus says: "We do not think there is any school of painting or any method of engraving of which the inner and the outer history is not therein almost perfectly given. The work is an illumination. It should be in the hands of every refined person, for it is one of those volumes which are almost a liberal education."

The New York Evening Post says: "It furnishes precisely what all lovers of art who are not themselves either artists or trained critics need. It teaches the reader what to admire and what to condemn, by teaching him why some things in art are admirable and others are not. It educates the art instinct. It is a great work."

Sold by Baker, Pratt & Co., 143 and 144 Grand Street, and D. Appleton & Co., Broadway, New York, and all Booksellers, or will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price, by the publishers,

S. C. GRIGGS & CO., Chicago.

"Every art student in the land should read this book, which will also be found fascinating by readers who may not be students."—Catholic Review.

For sale by all dealers, and sent, paid, by mail, on receipt of price.

Ruskin on Painting.

With a Biographical Sketch. Forming No. 29 of Appletons' "New Handy-Volume Series." Paper, 30 cents; cloth, 60 cents.
